Whitehall, June 21.

THE following Address of the High Sheriff, Justices of the Peace, Gentlemen, and Grand Jury of the County of Stafford, has been presented to his Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the High Sheriff, Justices of the Peace, Gentlemen, and Grand Jury of the County of Stafford, assembled at the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace in and for the said County, on Tuesday the 23d Day of April, 1734.

May it please your most Excellent Majesty,
WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff, Justices of the Peace, Gentlemen, and Grand Jury, assembled at the General Quarter Sessions held for the said County, humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty upon the happy Alliance so wisely concluded between your Majesty's most august House, and that of the illustrious House of Nassau.

We esteem it a great and fresh Instance of your Majesty's Paternal Care and Affection for your People, that you should pay a Debt this Nation owed to that illustrious House, by giving to it one of the most accomplished and best of Princesses.

'Tis with the utmost Pleasure and Gratitude we reflect upon this happy Occasion, that by one of that Family we were restored to our Religious and Civil Rights; and that Blessings so valuable may never more be in Danger, we have now the Pleasure of seeing the Crown firmly settled upon your sacred Person and your Royal Posterity; in which, that it may for ever continue, is the most fervent Prayer of,

Your Majesty's most dutiful and faithful Subjects.

Hague, June 19, N. S. Their Royal and Serene Highnesses the Prince and Princess of Orange arrived here last Night. A Guard was offered to her Royal Highness, which she refused. This Day her Royal Highness was complimented by the three Colleges, the States General, the States of Holland, and the Council of State. The Prince went in the Morning to visit the Presidents of the said Colleges, who returned their Compliments to his Highness by their Deputies some Hours after. A Muscovite Frigate, taken by the French in the Baltick, has been forced by Strels of Weather into Helvoetsluys; and a Knight of Malta, who has the Command of her, has been here to wait on the Marquess de Fenelon, the French Ambassadour. Letters from the Rhine advise, that the Imperial Army, commanded by Prince Eugene, having begun to move on the 19th Instant, was on the 22d advanced within a few Leagues of the French Camp before Philipsbourg. By the last Advices from Dantzick, General Munich and the Prince of Saxe Weissenfels had opened the Trenches before Fort Wechselmunde at two different Places, and having summoned the French Troops encamped near the said Fort, and the Governor thereof to surrender, they demanded three Days to consider of it, which was granted them.

Whitehall, June 22.

His Majesty has been pleased to grant unto the Right Honourable John Viscount Ly-mington, the several Offices of Governor and Captain of the Isle of Wight, and Governor of Carisbrook Castle, and of Constable and Door-keeper of the said Castle; and of Steward, Surveyor, Receiver, and Bailiff of all Manors, Lands, Tenements, Woods, Hereditaments, and other Revenues within the said Island, in the Room of his Grace the Duke of Montague.

This Day their Majesties came from Kensington to Hyde-Park, where his Majesty's Foot-Guards, viz. The First Regiment commanded by the Right Honourable Sir Charles Wills, Lieutenant General of his Majesty's Forces; the Second Regiment, called the Coldstream Regiment, commanded by the Right Honourable Richard Earl of Scarborough; and the Third Regiment, commanded by the Right Honourable John Earl of Dummore, passed in Review before his Majesty, and made a very fine Appearance. After which their Majesties returned to Kensington.
